Weather Report

Weather has a profound and widespread influence on business. We are all vulnerable to unforeseen weather events, and the inability to manage weather-related risk can limit business success, thwart economic development. The weather report helps to plan the construction of plots or form layouts. Based on the weather data, the layouts can plan for the reuse of water and construct drainage system accordingly to balance the water bodies and future sustainability.

Vastu guidelines for selecting the plot

Plots with irregular shapes must be avoided. Preference should be given to plots with a rectangular and square shape. These are auspicious from the point of Vastu and are said to bring prosperity and happiness.

* Shapes to be avoided: Circular shape, oval shape plot, semi-circular shape plot

Below are generally referred as best Vastu compliant plots / sites.

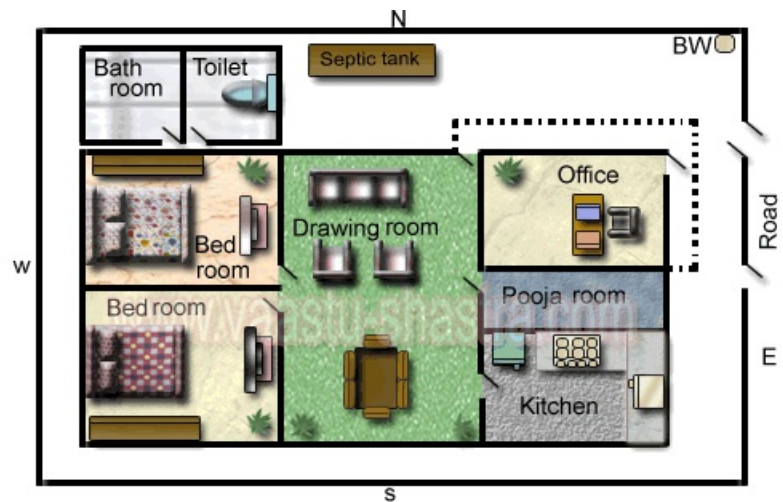

When the incoming road is from the east and hits the northeast part of the plot.

When the incoming road is from the north and hits the northeast part of the plot.

When the incoming road is from the West and hits the North- West part of the plot.

When the incoming road is from the South and hits the South- East part of the plot.

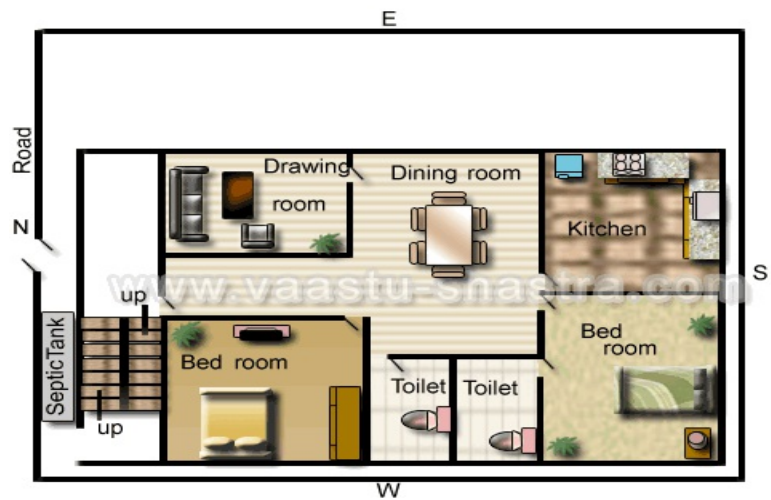

East facing plot - Below design can be adopted to harness positive energy
